Information Technology Traineeships

For those who love technology, the Information Technology field offers a number of opportunities and areas to specialise in. Office based IT traineeships will teach trainees the fundamentals of managing an IT network, hardware, helpdesk support and more.

What are some of the duties involved in an information technology traineeship?

IT support and maintenance	Networking
Help desk support	Internet and software troubleshooting
Hardware & software installation	Problem resolutions

What qualification is completed in the traineeship?
Certificate III in Information, Digital & Media Technology

Additional studies after the traineeship:
Certificate IV in Information Technology
Certificate IV in Networking