

Landscaping Apprenticeships

Landscaping & horticulture represent one of Australia's fastest-growing industries, closely linked to the housing boom. This rewarding career path involves landscaping large and small construction projects either on residential or commercial sites.

What are some of the duties involved in a landscaping apprenticeship?

Maintaining and preparing seedbeds and growing sites

Planting flowers, trees, hedges and bushes for commercial and residential sites

What qualification is completed in the apprenticeship?
Certificate III in Landscape Construction

A